WAKE UP, WASHINGTON!

President Wilson is working himself up into a fury over high prices, and the whole business world is becoming discouraged. Production is falling off in crude oil, and there is no doubt that it is falling off in other industries. An illustration: A great many of the prospectors in the oil fields are taking the position that since they can't get good prices, they are not going to take any chances by risking an investment in drills, etc. The cost of sinking a well has doubled in recent months, and the man who puts $30,000 into the ground in the hope of getting something out of it no longer wants to take a chance.

Secretary Lane takes the conservative side and believes that there ought to be ample profits which could be taken in the form of taxes later on. Daniels, Baker and Denman, who have never been noted as students of economy, spend most of their time fussing about prices, and bickering for what they consider good contracts.

The whole tendency of the government today is to discourage quick results. The question of prices has been given precedence over the question of getting things done promptly. This is the whole trouble in Washington.

Everybody knows the need for ships, but all we have had so far is a continued variation of programs—very little actually being done. Everybody knows the need for a greater production of steel, yet the government's attention is devoted almost exclusively to bringing about lower prices.

This is true all along the line. Only a few men are getting into the President's closure and most of these are filling him up with stories about business men working for big profits out of the government.

It is doubtful whether the army cantonments will be finished by September, or even October. At the present rate of progress in the construction of ships, there is no hope of replacing the tonnage lost by submarine attacks.

Only a disaster will wake up the Administration—Boston News Bureau.

OUR TRADE WITH NEUTRALS

The trouble is not that American goods get into Germany after being imported to the markets of those bordering countries, but that they enable those countries to send their own products to that enemy country, which they could not otherwise do. They do not send the same kind of products; but, if we supply food and materials to them which they might provide to please labor from the production of these and devote it to producing munitions and other things to sell to Germany which they could not otherwise do. It is easy to see how this may work, and actually has worked, to the aid of the enemy and the profit of these neutrals. While this kind of trading was to our advantage, it was defended; now that it is to our disadvantage, it is disengaged and we are determined to stop it, being no longer neutral ourselves. Self-interest is quite as powerful with nations as with individuals in determining conduct. In a situation like the present it is a pretty serious matter.—N. Y. Journal of Commercial.

DISCOUNTED

Secretary Daniels' denunciation of the Navy League would have had more weight if his reputation for accuracy had not been seriously damaged in previous verbal encounters. People discount whatever he says because he says it.—Portland Dragonian.

The food conservationist who announced the discovery that a frugal housewife can make two pounds of butter out of one by working a pint of milk into the butter has nothing on the dairyman who makes two quarts of milk out of one by adding liquid from the pump.

HOW TO CHOOSE PROTEIN FOODS ECONOMICALLY

Washington, D. C., September 12—Since protein is one of the most important food elements which the body needs and in most forms is expensive, housewives should take particular care in the selection of foods rich in protein in order that they may provide this substance in their diet economically, say specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The principles underlying the choice of such foods are discussed in Farmers' Bulletin 824, "Foods Rich in Protein," recently published by the department. Protein, the bulletin points out, is the only form in which the very important element nitrogen is furnished to the human body. The substance is absolutely necessary for the building and repair of body tissues.

The best known foods rich in protein include meats, fish, eggs, milk, cheeses, legumes, nuts, etc. The proteins of the different foods vary somewhat in character. It does not make much difference from which materials older persons get their supply of protein, though a variety of kinds usually is considered desirable. In the case of children, however, milk is the very best source of protein.

Housewives may solve the problem of furnishing the needed protein in the diet economically, says the bulletin, by learning how much protein is provided by the different kinds of food and then choosing the kinds which will furnish what the family needs for comparatively low cost and with little waste. For the assistance of housewives in making such comparisons, tables giving the amount of the protein in a pound of various protein-rich foods, and also the percentages of protein in the different foods are included in the bulletin.

In discussing the relation of the protein food consumed to bodily health, the bulletin points out that healthy persons should not make the mistake of assuming that it is necessary to measure their food as carefully as a doctor measures his medicines or even the food which he prescribes for an invalid. If the body is in good condition it adapts itself to the ordinary variations in its food supply. The danger comes when, day in and day out, the body gets too much or too little food, or when the kinds provided are not the most suitable. While there is no need to measure exactly how much protein is obtained with every meal, if the diet as a whole is to be healthful and economical the person who plans it ought to know in

Which Is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. Read this Maysville case:

Ben. P. Fleming, constable of Mason Co., 217 E. Lee St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Mr. Fleming is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Fleming had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60¢ all stores. ## CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help.

"I was taken sick, seemed to be . . .," writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around. . . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when rundown. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

HOME-READING COURSE FOR CITIZEN-SOLDIERS

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved.)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army, as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this Course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 28.
WHY WE FIGHT.

(Preceding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams. 14. The Team Leaders. 15. Fighting Arms of the Service. 16. Staff Branches of the Service—I, 17. Staff Branches of the Service, II. 18. Army Insignia. 19. The Army System of Training. 20. Close-Order Drill. 21. Extended-Order Drill. 22. Guard Duty. 23. Getting Ahead in the Army. 24. Army Courtesy. 25. Discipline and Respect for the Colors. 26. Some National Traditions. 27. The Spirit of the Service.)

Every American knows the causes of our war with the German Government. Yet this course would be incomplete if it did not contain a brief review of the events that finally forced us into war, when at last there remained "no other means of defending our rights."

The soldier of an autocratic Kaiser may fight best when he understands least of the true meaning of the war. To tell him the facts would be to chill his enthusiasm. But the citizen soldier of a democracy is entitled to know for what purposes he enters the struggle. He fights best when he sees most clearly why he fights.

The resolution of Congress declaring a state of war (Apr. 6, 1917) expresses the immediate cause in these few words:

"The Imperial German Government has committed repeated acts of war against the Government and the people of the United States of America."

Chief among the acts of war were attacks by German submarines on American ships and on unarmed merchant ships of other nations carrying American passengers. "Vessels of every kind," said the President in his address to Congress on April 2, 1917, "whatever their flag, their character, their cargo, their destination, their errand, have been ruthlessly sent to the bottom without warning and without thought of help or mercy for those on board, the vessels of friendly neutrals along with those of belligerents. Even hospital ships and ships carrying relief to the sorely bereaved and stricken people of Belgium, though the latter were provided with safe conduct through the prescribed areas by the German Government itself and were distinguished by unmistakable marks of identity, have been sunk with the same reckless lack of compassion or of principle." The present German submarine warfare against commerce is a warfare against mankind."

German Insults and Aggressions

There were other acts of hostility in addition to the submarine warfare. In his Flag Day address delivered at Washington on June 14, 1917, the President summed up the events that brought on war as follows:

"It is plain enough how we were forced into the war. The extraordinary insults and aggressions of the Imperial German Government left us no self-respecting choice but to take up arms in defense of our rights as a free people and of our honor as a sovereign Government. The military masters of Germany denied us the right to be neutral. They filled our unsuspecting communities with vicious spies and conspirators and sought to corrupt the opinion of our people in their own behalf. When they found that they could not do that, their agents diligently spread sedition

GERMAN BUILDINGS BURNED

By Argentines—Torches Applied to Many German Owned Homes—Huge Crowd Joins in Demonstration Against Germany.

Buenos Aires, September 12—The downtown section of the city was the scene of the wildest disorders tonight in connection with anti-German demonstrations in which thousands of Argentines took part. Many of those in the mobs carried fire brands and as a result scores of buildings were set on fire. Several blocks of German business houses in Calle 25 de Mayo were destroyed.

Among the structures attacked were the German Club, one of the finest edifices in the city, and the building of the German daily La Union. As fast as the fires in these buildings were extinguished they were started again.

Mounted police and the entire fire department kept rushing from one part of the city to another in an attempt to quell the riots and put down the flames.

In several instances police who were attempting to shoot at those wielding torches were set upon by the crowds and disarmed.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken by the authorities to protect Count Von Luxburg, the German minister, when he arrives here tomorrow morning to receive his passports.

EBENEZER PRESBYTERY

Adjourns at Washington After Short Session—Rev. Hooper, Pastor of Washington Church, Moderator.

Ebenezer Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church (U. S.) which has been in session at Washington, took final adjournment last night after a very busy day. A large part of the day was taken up with routine business, but inspirational features were by no means lacking. Good addresses on the mountain schools of the church were made by Rev. Alfred Erickson, Rev. S. T. Hill, and Rev. Mr. Handley; the Foreign Missions Obligation was ably presented by Rev. H. A. Love, and Rev. A. S. Venable; while a splendid sermon was preached to a crowded house by Rev. J. C. Hunt of Covington, Ky. The dinner and supper which were served on the grounds by the ladies of the community showed that the high cost of living has had absolutely no effect on the far-famed hospitality of the Washington people.

Rev. W. P. Hooper, pastor of the Washington Church, was the Moderator of the Presbytery. To be both host and Moderator was a very unusual honor.

The first quarterly meeting of the Second M. E. Church, South, will be held next Sunday, September 16. Rev. J. D. Redd, the Presiding Elder, will preach both morning and evening. Rev. J. Dickey, the new pastor will be present.

KERENSKY

Sold To Be Gaining Upper Hand in Russian Revolution—Korniloff and Followers Deemed Rebels—Situation Still Serious.

Petrograd, September 12—The provisional government today issued a decree handing over to the courts of justice as rebels General Korniloff, former commander-in-chief of the Russian armies; General Lomotis, chief of the general staff; General Markoff, the chief of the headquarters staff on the southwestern front, and M. Kisilakoff, assistant to Minister of Roads and Communications.

The following statement which was signed "Kerensky, prime minister and commander-in-chief" was given out here today:

"By the armed forces of Russia, I declare my complete faith in all ranks of the army and the fleet, in the generals, admirals, officers, soldiers and sailors who have borne upon their shoulders the heavy trial of the past days.

"The half year's experiment of free existence could not fail to convince everyone that all the extreme irrational demands not instantly carried out, wheresoever such demands may have come from, duly cause disturbance to the country. Let everyone remember whatsoever he might be, general or soldier, in the ranks, that the slightest disobedience of authority will henceforth be punished.

"It is time to cease playing with the country's fate. Let all Russians who strive to save the revolution and to achieve freedom and a renewal of the committee order of government understand become imbued with the conviction that in this moment all our ideas and strength should be directed first of all toward the defense of the Fatherland, that external enemy who is aiming to subjugate it."

Washington, September 12—Reports reaching here today indicating that Premier Kerensky's provisional government was gaining strength in its struggle to prevent General Korniloff from seizing the government, failed to raise the hopes of Russia's friends to any great extent.

Although accepting the government's optimistic announcement that Korniloff's followers were few and some of his soldiers marching on Petrograd had offered to arrest their leader, officials and diplomats said it was difficult to judge the strength of the revolt. They were impressed with the view that even should this uprising be quelled promptly the interests secretly approving Korniloff's attempted coup would remain as dangerous sources for Russia's future unity.

County Judge C. D. Newell, Deputy Sheriff Mike Brown, Messrs. J. C. Everett, Banks Durrett and Chenny Everett left yesterday afternoon for Louisville to attend the State Fair.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

At the recent special session of the Legislature of Kentucky a law was passed levying a tax of one-tenth of one per cent on the individual deposits of banks and providing that the bank may charge the tax to the depositors.

We take this means of notifying the public that out of its own funds and therefore all money deposited in this bank will be free from all State, County and City Taxes.

This Bank Will Pay This Tax for Its Depositors

Your money in this bank, on and after September 1, 1917, will be tax free, but will be subject to a tax of 40 cents on each $100, if you keep it at home.

We will continue to pay interest at the rate of 3 Per Cent. in our Savings Department.
